

VISIT PROGRAM FOR THREE DAYS IN FLORENCE

If you are in Florence for a three-day visit, we suggest the program below which will allow you to discover the main monuments of the city but also some less known ones. For us, this duration is adapted to the discovery of Florence. Please note that the order of the visits takes into account the opening hours of the different monuments.

Day 1:

At the beginning of the day, go to the National Museum of Bargello for a visit.

Continue the visit to the Oratory of the Buonomini di San Martino.

You can then visit the Orsanmichele church (via dei Calzaiuoli) which is close to the Duomo, to see the interior and exterior.

Go to the Duomo (Piazza del Duomo) to visit the Florence Cathedral and its baptistery, also located in the square.

After the visit, continue to the Museo dell'Opera del Duomo - (Museum of the Cathedral's Work), located behind the cathedral.

Finally, go to Piazza della Signoria to discover the monuments that border it, in particular the Loggia dei Lanzi.

Day 2:

Start your day with a visit to the church of Santa Trinita.

Continue your tour by visiting the Palazzo Davanzati.

Continue to Piazza della Signoria to visit the Palazzo Vecchio.

Then join the Uffizi Gallery for an in-depth visit (reservation of tickets and time slot highly recommended).

Finish the day by going to the banks of the Arno River to discover the Ponte Vecchio.

Day 3:

Start your day in Piazza San Marco and visit the San Marco Museum.

Continue to the San Lorenzo Complex, located in the square of the same name. Here you will find the church of San Lorenzo, the Medici chapels and the Biblioteca Laurenziana.

Then join the Palazzo Medici Riccardi for its visit.

Finish the day by going to Piazza Santa Maria Novella to discover it and the church and museum of the same name.
