

VISIT PROGRAM FOR FIVE DAYS IN FLORENCE

If you are in Florence for a five-day visit, we suggest the program below which will allow you to discover in depth its most famous monuments as well as the lesser known ones. Please note that the order of the visits takes into account the opening hours of the different monuments.

Day 1:

Start your day with a visit to the church of Santa Maria Maggiore

After the tour, continue to the Museo dell'Opera del Duomo - (Museum of the work of the cathedral), located behind the cathedral.

Continue to the Duomo (Piazza del Duomo) for a visit to Florence's cathedral and its baptistery, also located in the square.

Then join the National Bargello Museum for its visit.

Continue to Piazza della Signoria to discover the monuments that border it, in particular the Loggia dei Lanzi.

End the day with a visit to the Palazzo Vecchio located in the same square.

Day 2:

Start your day with a visit to Palazzo Davanzati.

Continue your visit with the Basilica of Santa Trinita.

You can then discover the square and the church of Ognissanti.

Then join the Piazza Santa Maria Novella for its discovery and the visit of the church Santa Maria Novella.

Continue to the Uffizi Gallery for an in-depth visit (reservation of tickets and time slot highly recommended, for this day we advise you to arrive between 3 and 4 pm).

End your day on the banks of the Arno to discover the Ponte Vecchio.

Day 3:

For this very busy day, start the visit to arrive at 8:15 am at the Chiostro della Scalzo (Cloister of the Discalced).

Continue to the Cenacolo di Santa Apollonia (Holy Supper of Saint Apollonia).

The next stop is the San Marco Museum.

Continue on to Piazza San Lorenzo where you can visit the different parts of the San Lorenzo Complex. Here you will find the church of San Lorenzo, the Medici chapels and the Biblioteca Laurenziana.

Then go to Piazza della Santissima Annunziata to discover it and visit the church and cloisters of the Santissima Annunziata.

Then go to the Archaeological Museum.

In the same square you can visit the Spedale degli Innocenti (Hospital of the Innocents).

Continue to the Galleria dell'Accademia.

Finish the day with a visit to the Palazzo Medici Riccardi.

Day 4:

To start your day, reach the church of Santa Maria Maddalena dei Pazzi.

Continue your visit with the church of Sant'Ambrogio.

You can then go to Casa Buonarroti.

Continue to the square and the church of Santa Croce.

Then cross the Arno river and reach the church of San Miniato al Monte located on the heights. You can get there by public transportation.

To finish the day, go to Piazzale Michelangiolo for the view of Florence.

Day 5:

To start your day, go to the Oltrarno district to discover the church of Santa Felicita.

Continue to Palazzo Pitti and visit the Boboli Gardens which can be reached from Palazzo Pitti.

Then go to Piazza Santa Maria del Carmine to visit its church and the Brancacci Chapel.

You can then discover the church of San Felice.

Continue the visit with the church of Santo Spirito.

Then enjoy the rest of the day walking through the streets of Florence and shopping.

